Sauna visiting rules:

- Wash with soap before entering the sauna. Wash your hair only before the last session.
- Wipe the water from the surface of your body before entering the sauna.
- Bring only a sheet or towel to sit or lie on. It is inappropriate to sit as you would on a chair. This can lead to dizziness or headaches.
- In the sauna, spread a towel or sheet under your entire body, including your feet.
- Do not talk in the sauna, just relax.
- You can breathe through your nose and mouth in the sauna. Cover your nose and mouth with your hands if you feel the air burning when you breathe. Breathe at the normal rate you are used to.
- Leave the sauna after the recommended period of time or if you feel a burning sensation in your earlobes, tip of your nose or nipples.
- After warming up thoroughly, rinse off the sweat and cool down in the shower. We recommend cooling your head as well, or at least the nape of your neck.

- Stay in the relaxation room for at least 20 minutes. At this stage, do not forget to properly replenish fluids.
- Repeat the hot/cold procedure at least 3 times. After the last cool down, rinse with lukewarm water but do not use soap.
